Adeline means “gracious lady”, and we could not agree more when we look at these two elegant apartments. Originally one cottage, a deft renovation of this 1920s beauty has created two delightful suites that each offers a bedroom, spa bathroom, kitchen/dining room and lounge with open fire.

Entering through leadlight doors, Majestic Suite radiates warmth with its country kitchen and dining room, and its separate lounge with fire, all of which enjoy magical garden views. Fern Suite is equally appointed and boasts a glass-domed country kitchen and a cosy lounge with a dreamy wood fire and views over a new fern garden.

Adeline’s beauty does not lie solely within; she rests in a classic Mount Dandenong garden of mountain ash, golden elms and ferns. And her location is ideal: William Ricketts sanctuary is nearby, as are the National Rhododendron Gardens, SkyHigh restaurant and lookout, and a string of quaint villages that dot the Dandenong Ranges. Whether you seek a break filled with activity or simply lazy hours in front of the fire, these suites will entice.

Location: 45 km or 50 minutes east of Melbourne. Map 7. Melway 66 G4.
Facilities: Two suites: each with queen bedroom, spa bathroom, lounge (open fire, TV, DVD, CD), full kitchen, central heating/AC, private entrance, private balcony or sitting area. Full breakfast provisions provided; supper provisions available by prior arrangement.
